Telephone Conversation with [REDACTED]

STATINTL

[REDACTED] called this morning to find out what I had been able to come up with in re his FOIA request that he feels most strongly is being held up in DDO. [REDACTED] said that this delay has now been more than nine months and he feels he must resort to court action to obtain the information promised to him. STATINTL

I advised [REDACTED] that I had checked into the matter and that my information was the requested material should be ready for him by the end of this week or early next week. I acknowledged that some time had passed since the request, apologized for the delay, but explained that DDO had been tied up in priority matters (which he said he could understand) and that he should call me next week if he has received nothing. He agreed to do this.

(Information passed to [REDACTED] of FOIA)

FOIA Request

STATINTL

ATINTL

[REDACTED] just spoke with [REDACTED] of FOIA office about request to see his file. [REDACTED] evidently advised him that the file is still tied up in DDO. He claims he has been put off now for at least six months.....request is well over year old now. Thinks file is delayed because of deletions being made by DDO [REDACTED] Could something be done about expediting his request.
